

8th Annual Northeastern Kentucky Beekeeping School Class Listing

Session	Time	Auditorium	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4	Room 5	Room 6
		Listed classes may change without notice, but changes are unlikely
Registration	Starts @ 07:30	Registration at Front Lobby
Opening Remarks	8:30 Auditorium	Welcome, Kevin Hale, President of Licking River Beekeepers Association
Keynote Speaker	8:40 Auditorium	Dr. Clare Rittschof, University of KY Department of Entomology, speaking on how honey bees behaving aggressively can be a sign of a healthy hive.
Session 1	9:30 - 10:20	Jim Coss: Beginning Beekeeping Pt 1	Dr. Jen Okeefe: What Bees Are Eating - Feral Vs Domestic	Harris Overholt: Second Year Beekeeping	Harold Howell: Collecting and Extracting Honey	Neil Hunt: Swarm Control	Kevin Hale: Testing for and Treating Mites
Session 2	10:30 - 11:20	Clay Guthrie: Diseases and Pests of the Hive	Christine Tailor: Beekeeping Naturally, no chemicals or medications	Margaret Reed: Bees Wax - What is it and where does it come from?	Brian Touchton: Creating Splits - Reasons and Methods	Neil Hunt: Hive Inspections - How and What You See	Kevin Hale: Queen Issues and Re-Queening
Lunch/ Shopping	11:30 - 12:30	Lunch and Beekeepers Panel with Open Mic for ALL
Session 3	12:30 - 1:20	Jim Coss: Beginning Beekeeping Pt 2	Dr. Jen Okeefe: Moving Feral Bees	Harris Overholt: Second Year Beekeeping	Harold Howell: Collecting and Extracting Honey	Neil Hunt: Swarm Control	Kevin Hale: Making 100lb of Honey
Session 4	1:30 - 2:20	Clay Guthrie: Honey Bee Nutrition	Christine Tailor: Life of the Honey Bee	Margaret Reed: Bees Wax - Composition and Value	Brian Touchton: Creating Splits - Reasons and Methods	Neil Hunt: Raising Queens - Non-grafting	Kevin Hale: Making 100lb of Honey
Wrap up/ Door Prizes	3:00	Auditorium
Track 1 classes are for beginning beekeepers			Track 2 classes are for advanced beekeepers						